

You are my waking dream.
You're all that's real to me.
You are the magic in the world I see.

You are in the prayer I sing.
You brought me to my knees.
You are the faith that made me believe.
Dreams on fire. Higher and higher.
Passion burning Bright on the pyre.
Once for, forever yours give me all your heart.

Dreams on fire. Higher and higher.
You are my ocean waves.
You are my thought each day.
you are the laughter from childhood games.
You are the spark of dawn.
You are where I belong.
You are the ache I feel in every song.

Dreams on fire. Higher and higher.
Passions burning Bright on the pyre.
