

I walk away from moonlight
Searching for a life
Dreaming about the distance
Why wouldn't that be right
I think i'm just fading
A step at a time
I want someone to push me
And to be by my side
It isn't fair for a girl like me
Take me away cause
I do believe i just don't
Care how much it takes

Just take me away
Take me away
I think i saw a figure
Right across the field but
I just cant remember
Who that could have been
I don't have a secret
To share with a friend
I know i'm unfortunate
Could this be the end
It isn't fair for a girl like me
Take me away 'cause
I do believe i just don't
Care how much it takes
Just take me away
Take me away
While i sing this song and
I look around i know
That i'll go on every step
I take every move i make
There's a chance
Waiting for me
I walk away from
Moonlight searching for
A life dreaming
About the distance
Why wouldn't that be right

I think i'm just fading
A step at a time
I want someone to Push me and to be
By my side it isn't
Fair for a girl
Like me take me
Away 'cause i do believe

I just don't care
How much it takes
Just take me away
Take me away.
