

Just some devotion bold enough to light a ray
Emotion strong enough to make a change
Bharatlyrics.com
A moment long enough to live life again
Just a creation as pure as love
Fear just a drop of color
Deep enough to tell
Sea from day
Just a few specs of dust
Just enough to cover the grey
Just a spark of fire to wash away
Anything in the way

Just some notes in
Silence loud enough to break away
Grain of food enough to make them crave
A sight of the moon to mark the end
The end is near
Its hear

Just a dripping cut enough to make them say
Im here to stay
Just a gentle touch
Just enough to make the fields sway
Just a little commotion in
The head they know they can say
A glimpse of hope enough to save
Bridge

Ab ghar aa
Jag maine chhodha
Tore kaaran

Just some devotion bold enough to light a ray
Emotion strong enough to make a change
A moment long enough to live life again
Just a creation as pure as love
Fear just a drop of color
Deep enough to tell
Sea from day

Just a few specs of dust
Just enough to cover the grey
Just a spark of fire to wash away
Anything in the way.
