

Killer On The Loose Lyrics

Got me feeling one with the madness
Got me feeling one with the truth
These days they been calling me the baddest
These days I been coming for the loot

Ayy for the loot for the loot
Ayy killer on the loose

Okay okay I been coming for the truth
Okay you are prey but you aint got a clue
Gets bloody when I am going for the coup
Now that is how the cycle of life goes
I feel like a psycho who came with his rifle
I feel like a recital of your eulogies

I am bringing the vibe bro
You aint nothing new to me
You aint never seen nobody like me
Bringing all my guns to your high tea

Willing in this game that I might be Sending you six feet deep under my feet
I am a beast I been classy like he
I been packing receipts I been stacking seats
I been passing off easy they calling me breezy

This ko always needs me like he on his knees for his season
Going for the throne when the times right
Bringing your sins to the limelight
Theres a place and a time for the devil in disguise
To be stepping to the light like

Feeling one with the truth that I will be out chasing them
I am a killer on the loose there aint no escaping
Feeling one with the truth that I will be out chasing them
Killer on the loose there aint no escaping

Coming for your head coming with the army
Walking with the lead make it rain around me

Calling me god cause I feel like this a hobby
Scorching earth that you are walking on I am rowdy like that

Mighty like that when I am fighting my opps
And I am writing my pack
Skies are all black this an all out attack
When I am making a statement I am making it last
Boy I am making it

One with the truth one with the fact
Rowdy when I come for the loot
Slaying with that class I mean I become what I do
King of the land I dont really got shit to prove
Boy understand we are on demand

Feeling one with the crew that I will be out chasing
I am a killer on the loose there aint no escaping
