

Me you and everyone we knew
Thought our dreams would never come true
But they don't see the things i do
Painted black and white and gray

They say that you're an illusion
Like the sunshine in the rain
Like the water in the desert
I'll take away your pain

Love you more than i can say
Love more each and every day
But you will never love me
And i know you will never stay
But i wanna tell you baby
This time i'm gonna be sure
I'm coming back for more

Yours and mine everyone of this kind
Me and you till the end of time
And blind my eyes with the shades of life
And paint me black and white and gray

They say that you're moving on
I've got to face the truth some day
But i hope that you feel our song
So now sometimes i pray

I love you more than i can say
Love you more than yesterday
But you will never love me
And i know you will never stay
This time i'm gonna be sure
I'm coming back for more

Love you more than i can say
I love you each and every day

I think i love you anyway
I wanna tell you baby
This time i'm gonna be sure

I'm coming back for more.
