

Got this force coming though
In my blood, in my veins
It's a current of love
It's a chorus of pain
Rising up from the deep
Sunken wrecks down under
Thunder waves poised to break
And you're right at the brink

Then you raise up your hands
Higher higher

One moment in time
I was touching your core
Where you once were
You're not there anymore
There is no easy road
You set out, paths unfold
And the gate is narrow
The world wide and cold

You raise up your hands
Higher higher
Dhola mera aawo thaari
Yeh marr marr jowe baatdi
Dhola mera aawo thaari
Yeh marr marr jowe baatdi
Maaru jowe baatdi gori jowe baatdi
Maaru jowe baatdi gori jowe baatdi

Time moves on no remorse
Bharatlyrics.com
Never changing its course
Arrows already fired
From that bold heart of yours
You raise up your hands
Higher higher.
