

The Rage Lyrics

---

I dont talk much my entrys loud
Shadows move back when I walk through crowds
Cold in my eyes rage in control
Once stared deep yeah I take your soul

No hero mask no saving role
Straight villain mode heart made of stone
My silence is harder than words you scream
When I step in frame whole city freeze

I dont speak I make endings
I dont smile I leave bodies
Silent moves deadly timing
One step forward war is decided

I dont speak I make endings
I dont smile I leave bodies
Silent moves deadly timing
One step forward war is decided

Born is given no second chance
Time runs out when I advance
No more shadow fear my rule

Enemies crumble I stay cool
Stand against me empires fall

Men freeze no paths left just empty space
When I walk in heroics reflow
Even the beat drops heartbeat low
Beat low

I dont talk much my entrys loud
Shadows move back when I walk through crowds
Cold in my eyes rage in control
Once stared deep yeah I take your soul

No hero mask no saving role
Straight villain mode heart made of stone

My silence is harder than words you scream
When I step in frame whole city freeze

I dont speak I make endings
I dont smile I leave bodies
Silent moves deadly timing
One step forward war is decided

I dont speak I make endings
I dont smile I leave bodies
Silent moves deadly timing
One step forward war is decided

Born is given no second chance
Time runs out when I advance
No more shadow fear my rule
Enemies crumble I stay cool
