

Trapped in my body
Trapped in my soul
Trapped in my body
And i think i'm getting old

Trapped in a dream and
You can't even scream
'cos there's no one ever here
Stapped to your seat
And you can't find your feet
Will this nightmare never stop

All alone strange city
Hot crowded afternoon
I've been stranded
In the darkness
I can't see there's no moon

Trapped in my body
Trapped in my soul

Chased in a dream by
A freshly rested team
Of black horses
Drawing a hearse
Crossing swords on
The bridge of rewards
There's no winner
Aur fat purse

All alone strange city
Hot crowded afternoon
I've been stranded
In the darkness
I can't see there's no moon

Trapped in my body
Trapped in my soul
Trapped in my body
Trapped in my soul
Trapped in my body
